

Graduate Sharing - Sandeep Singh

Mr. Sandeep Singh, affectionately known as “Sango”, opted to further his study at the degree level after graduating from the Higher Diploma in International Hospitality Management at IVE (Haking Wong) in 2009.

He is currently enrolled in University of London’s International Programme – Bachelor of Laws (LLB). Sango had a very happy time and gained a lot of professional knowledge and experience while studying at IVE (Haking Wong), which was regarded by him as an excellent platform to equip himself for further studies at the tertiary level.

Apart from excelling academically, Sango further developed his potentials and polished his character through participating in a wide range of extra-curricular activities on campus. He was nominated to participate in the “International Youth Exchange Programme” in UK.

Sango was very proud to be the first representative from VTC to participate in this programme, and considered it as an important milestone in his personal development.
